An 11-year veteran of the Oklahoma County Sheriff's Office, Deputy McCain was honored to serve as a School Resource Officer at Oklahoma Christian School in Edmond for the last six years. He was a strong community leader, loved and respected by the school's administration, teachers, students, and parents alike. Deputy McCain leaves behind a loving family, including his son; Collin Lincoln James "The Mouse" McCain; mother, Lisa Miracle and her husband Larry; grandparents, Barbara and Gene Erickson; brothers, Daniel (Jody) and Dallas (Danielle), and many other loved ones across the state.
